

Remembrance Sunday Service
10:50am 8th November 2026
Bisley War Memorial

Welcome & Introduction

Song: I'll Remember
1. As we gather to celebrate, Bittersweet victory from fate, Now together all should reflect; Their hope for a better day.	2. I'll remember their sacrifice, I'll remember the freedom won, I'll remember and not forget; Their hope for a better day.
Chorus I'll remember, like the wind through the trees, I'll remember, like the stars that I see, I'll remember, like the haunting blue sea; Their hope for a better day. I'll remember, as the sun makes its play, I'll remember, at the close of the day, I'll remember, for eternity; Their hope for a better day.	3. We are thankful, the future's ours, We are grateful, the hope that's now, We're united, the freedoms enjoyed; Their hope for a better day.
Final Chorus I'll remember, like the wind through the trees, I'll remember, like the stars that I see, I'll remember, like the haunting blue sea; Their hope for a better day. I'll remember, as the sun makes its play, I'll remember, at the close of the day, I'll remember, for eternity; Their hope for a better day. I'll remember, as the sun makes its play, I'll remember, at the close of the day, I'll remember, for eternity; Their hope for a better day.

Minister Let us remember before God,
and commend to his sure keeping:
Those who have died for their country in war;
Those we have known, those from this community recalled here, and all who have lived and died in the service of peoples of the world.

Speaker 1

They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn

Speaker 2

At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them

All: We will remember them.

Hymn: O God Our Help In Ages Past
1. O God our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.	3. Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame, From everlasting thou art God, To endless years the same.
2. Beneath the shadow of thy throne, Thy saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defence is sure.	4. A thousand ages in thy sight Are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night, Before the rising sun.
5. O God our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Be thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home.

Bible Reading – Ephesians 6: 10-17

Address - By Chris Tew

Prayer

May God give peace

All: God give peace

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service.

Will you strive for all that makes for peace? All: We will.

Will you seek to heal the wounds of war? All: We will.

Will you work for a just future for all humanity? All: We will.

Merciful God.....

All: Amen.

The National Anthem:

God save our gracious King
Long live our noble King,
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us:
God save the King!
